Little Governor's Camp - Located on the edge of the Masai Mara National Reserve, the camp is accessed by a very short boat ride across the Mara River, then an escorted walk through the riverine forest. The guest tents at Little Governors' all have wooden decks with large verandahs for guests to enjoy the constant game activity that takes place around the marsh in front of camp. The tents are ensuite with lovely washrooms complete with flush toilets and hot/cold running water all day.

Breakfast and lunch are served in the open air, and the resident families of warthogs frequently wander amongst the tables. Since all Governors' properties are unfenced, all kinds of wildlife visit the camp and guests may need to make way for elephants which often visit during lunch time! In the evening, a warming log fire burns in front of the bar tent, and a candlelit dinner is served in the nearby dining tent. Wildlife in the surrounding area is amazing! The lions of the Marsh Pride are numerous as well as the other prides in the area. Elephant and hippo frequent the marsh daily and you may even get to see Black Rhino too!
